

AI Pitch Competition 2026

Shaping the Future of Innovation — Brabant, The Netherlands

This pack is for our partners to use when informing their own networks and social channels about the AI Pitch Competition 2026. It includes a short competition overview, ready-to-use social media captions, and an email template you can send to your community. Everything here can be copied and adapted freely. Just keep the core facts accurate.

About the AI Pitch Competition

The AI Pitch Competition is the platform for ambitious AI startups in the Brabant region of the Netherlands. It gives founders working on game-changing AI solutions the chance to pitch to a jury of industry leaders and investors, sharpen their pitching skills, connect with like-minded entrepreneurs, and compete for cash prizes and growth opportunities.

The competition builds toward a live finale at the AI Summit Brainport, preceded by a pitch training workshop and a networking Meet & Greet, so participating startups arrive on stage well prepared.

Why startups join

- Real pitching experience in front of a professional jury and audience
- Direct, expert feedback during the "How to Pitch" workshop ahead of the finale
- Cash prizes and growth opportunities for winners
- A network of fellow AI entrepreneurs, investors and industry experts
- Media exposure and visibility as a leading AI player in the region

2026 program (high level)

- Meet & Greet @ LevelUp — networking kickoff (September 28, time: 12:00 – 15:45)
- Workshop: How to Pitch? — hands-on pitch coaching for participants (October 27, 2026, time: 09:00 – 18:00)
- Finale — live pitches at the AI Summit Brainport (November 12, 2026, time: 14:15 – 16:15)

Organizers & partners

The competition is organized by Erasmus Enterprise, BOM, and IO+, and is powered by Provincie Noord-Brabant. It's also supported by a wider network of regional universities, knowledge institutions and economic development partners across Brabant.

Note: Braventure is no longer an organizing partner for the 2026 edition — BOM has taken their place.
